

SOUTH RICHMOND

MR. PLUMMER DECLINES
CALL TO SOUTHSIDE CHURCH

Meade Memorial Congregation Still Looking for New Rector.

SPECIAL SERVICES FOR TO-DAY

Plan at Forest Hill Marks Close of Mrs. E. Howlett Trainman's School.
Personal Mention.

Rev. James P. Plummer, of Monks-ton, Md., who was recently extended a call by the pulpits committee to become rector of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church, has declined the offer, and will not preach in the church today as was expected. In a letter to the chairman of the committee Mr.
Plummer thanked the congregation for its invitation, but said that after careful consideration he could not accept on account of his present duties. The church has been without a rector since the resignation last winter of Rev. F.
Ernest Warren, who became rector of the St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Glitter Park. Efforts will be made to secure a rector as soon as possible, and it is desired to push the plans for building a new church, which were started by Mr. Warren. An excellent site has already been purchased.

Rev. John G. Scott will conduct regular services in the church this morning.

Supervisors May Discuss Annexation.

The graceful withdrawal of opposition to annexation by the citizens of Chesterfield County and Forest Hill has caused much favorable comment on the Southside. An active part was taken in the fight by the Southside civic organizations, which were anxious to have the new territory taken in a meeting of the Chesterfield Board of Supervisors will be held to-morrow in Chesterfield Courthouse, and the question of annexation terms may be taken up.

To-day in Southside Churches.

"The Unity of the Body of Christ," or "The Need of a Social Conscience in the Church," will be the subject of the sermon to be preached by Rev. W. A.
Cooper to-night in Central Methodist Church. At the morning service he will preach on "Jesus, the Good Shepherd," and administer the holy sacrament.

Children's Day will be observed tonight at 8 o'clock in Ashbury Methodist Church with appropriate exercises. The entertainment committee is composed of Misses Juliet Renner, Lola Cheatham, Miss Alice Williams, Miss Catherine organist; Miss Renner, pianist, and J.
S. Renner, director.

Rev. Wesley Baker will preach this morning in Porter Street Presbyterian Church on "Men Who Inhabit Reality," and to-night on "Hiding Goodness to God."

In Cowardin Avenue Christian Church this morning Rev. F. Wayne Long will preach on "Getting out of the Old Italy," his subject for next Sunday will be "The Christian in the Wrong Place."

Both services will be conducted in Decorative Street Methodist Church by Rev. R. M. White.

Rev. R. D. White will occupy his pulpit for the first time to-day in Wm.
and Helch's Baptist Church. He will preach at both services.

Held for Grand Jury.

Leroy Jackson, colored, was held for action by the grand jury yesterday by Magistrate L. W. Cheatham, of Swansboro, on the charge of attempting to attack and rob Laura Graves, colored.
The charges were claimed that after attempting an offense against her, he tried to snatch her purse containing $6.55.

Closes for Session.

With a picnic at Forest Hill, Mrs.
E. Howlett Trainman's School closed
